HAVING A HOME (AND SENDING) CHURCH

In January, we had the blessing to join the Promise Land Baptist Church family, and in February, we were able to talk with them about being our sending church. Praise God they decided to do so. We have never had our own church family in the US, and it is a blessing to us to have friends, and even friends for our children, that we can grow with. Leaving will be hard, but it's nice to know we will have them (and you) rooting for us, and we look forward to being back.

MULTIPLICATIVE LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Two weeks ago, Jonathan attended a training led by Mac Lake. Not only was it a good time to learn about how to make disciples, investing in training others, but it was also a good time of networking with area pastors of the First Coast Association of Baptist Churches.

LEARNING AND NETWORKING

Last week, Jonathan attended a leadership workshop held by the Northeast Florida Christian Chamber of Commerce. It was a good time to learn, to network with business leaders, and to meet a young man who wants to be a missionary himself one day.

PACKING

One of the big parts of preparing to return to the Philippines is packing boxes. Our last (or one of our last) major shipments was 5 boxes of household items, tools, kids' schoolbooks, and a children's playhouse for Doane Rest. We will see these boxes again in 3-4 months.
